COUNT VI- MONELL LIABILITY

47. Plaintiff incorporates by reference ¶ 1 through 46 as if fully set forth herein.
48. At all relevant times, Defendant City of Chicago, acting through the Chicago Police Department developed, implemented, enforced, encouraged, and sanctioned de facto policies, practices, and /or customs exhibiting deliberate indifference to the Plaintiff's Constitutional rights which caused the violation of such rights, including, but not limited to, the search and seizure of individuals at their residences without justification and the use of excessive force and police brutality.

49. The de facto policies, practices, and/or customs occurred not only in Plaintiff's case but have also occurred in other cases where Chicago Police Officers illegally searched an individual's residence, illegally searched and individual's person, illegally seized and individual and used excessive force, including, but not limited to the following:
- a. Plevritis v. City of Chicago, No. 06 C 3401, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 68518 (N.D. Ill. Sep. 17, 2007), where Chicago Police Officers entered and searched a private residence without probable cause or a warrant ; Defendant Chicago Police Officers motion for Summary Judgment was denied.
  - b. Jacobs v. City of Chicago, 215 F.3d 758, 773-74 (7th Cir. 2000), where Chicago Police Officers entered a residence without justification and the Defendant Police Officers use of force against [arrestee] while executing and illegal search of his home and unlawful seizure of his person was out of proportion to any danger that [arrestee] could possibly have posed to the officers or any other member of the community. "The Court found that the arrestee's Fourth Amendment rights may had been violated.
  - c. See also "Investigation of the Chicago Police Department, "United States Dept. of Justice Civil Rights Div. and U.S. Attorney's Office Northern Dist. Of Ill., January 13, 2017, p.15 (We have serious concerns about the prevalence of racially discriminatory conduct by some Chicago Police Department Officers and the degree to which that conduct is tolerated and in some respects caused by deficiencies in Chicago Police Department's systems of training, supervision and accountability.
In light of these concerns, combined with the fact that the impact of Chicago Police Department pattern or practice of unreasonable force fall heaviest on predominantly black and Latino neighborhoods, restoring police community trust will require remedies addressing both discriminatory conduct ant the disproportionality of illegal and unconstitutional patterns of force on minority communities")
  - d. Other cases involving illegal searches, seizures, and excessive force.
50. The aforementioned Constitutional abuses and violations routinely committed by Defendant City of Chicago, through the actions of the Defendant officers, were and are directly and proximately caused by policies practices, and or customs developed, implemented, enforce, encouraged and sanctioned by Defendant City of Chicago, including the failure: (1) to adequately train and supervise its police officers and agents, including the Defendants, thereby failing to adequately discourage further Constitutional violations and unlawful conduct of the part of its police officers; (2) to properly and adequately monitor and discipline its Police Officers, including the Defendant Police Officers; and (3) to discipline Police misconduct, choosing instead to tolerate, and thereby promote, the de facto policies, practices, and/or customs of illegally searching residences, illegally searching and seizing residents, and using excessive force police brutality.

51. The aforementioned Constitutional abuses and violations willfully committed by the Defendant City of Chicago, through the actions of the Defendant officers, were and are directly and proximately caused by policies, practices, and/or customs developed implemented, enforced, encouraged and sanctioned by Defendant City of Chicago, including the failure: (1) to adequately train and supervise its Police officers and agents, including the Defendants, thereby failing to adequately discourage further Constitutional violations and unlawful conduct on the part of its Police officers; (2) to properly and adequately monitor and discipline its officers, including the Defendant Police Officers; and (3) to discipline Police misconduct, choosing instead to tolerate, and thereby promote, the de facto policies, practices, and or customs of illegally searching residences, illegally searching and seizing residents, and using excessive force police brutality.
52. The aforementioned conduct and other conduct in other cases willfully committed by the City of Chicago Police Officers constitutes de facto policies, practices, and/or customs because the City of Chicago promoted, rather than discouraged, the following conduct:
- a. The failure to have a system which monitors patterns of unconstitutional Police misconduct;
  - b. The failure to properly discipline sustained allegations of unconstitutional Police misconduct;
  - c. The failure to properly maintain records of judicial findings of Police misconduct, including, but not limited to, illegal search, illegal seizure, and excessive force;
  - d. The failure to properly train, hire, monitor, and/or supervise Police officers.
  - e. A de facto policy, practice, and custom of the policy code of silence results in Police officers refusing to report instances of Police misconduct of which they are aware, including the use of excessive force and the maltreatment of persons, despite their obligations under Chicago Police Department regulations to do so. This conduct includes Police officers who remain silent or willfully give false or misleading information during official investigations in order to protect themselves or fellow officers from internal discipline or retaliation, civil liability, or criminal prosecution;
  - f. The failure to discipline Chicago Police Officers who use excessive force or illegally search and/or seize persons or property.
53. The aforementioned policies, practices, and customs, individually and collectively, have been maintained and/or implemented with deliberate indifference by Defendant City of Chicago, and its subsidiary department, and have encouraged the individual Defendant Police officers to commit the aforementioned wrongful acts against the Plaintiff and therefore acted as a direct and proximate cause of the complained of Constitutional violations and Plaintiff's injuries.
54. Defendant's unlawful actions were done willingly, knowingly, and with the specific intent to injure the Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, Grace Stovall, prays for judgment against the Defendant City of Chicago for reasonable compensatory damages and punitive damages, plus attorney's fees and costs, and any other relief this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

75. The Defendant City of Chicago Police "acted in concert" to stalk out, terrorize and hunt down the Plaintiff with their accomplices who illegally took numerous pictures and illegal surveillance of the Plaintiff in her private apartment, in her private bedroom, in her private bathroom, when she would come and go in and out of her apartment reporting the information to third parties while the Defendants "acted in concert" to maliciously stalk, terrorize and hunt down the Plaintiff at the behest of Defendant City of Chicago Police and their accomplices who "acted in concert" with photographer Leroy Doyle who committed the stalking, terrorizing and illegal photography to defame and cast the Plaintiff in a false light without her consent.

76. When Plaintiff told the trespasser and intruder Leroy Doyle to stop taking pictures of her, he continued to take more pictures of her and Leroy Doyle ran downstairs into Defendants Michael Blanchard and his accomplices Deeatra Blanchard's apartment on the 1st floor of the building at 5112-5114 S. Ingleside.

COUNT XIII

DEFENDANTS CITY OF CHICAGO POLICE "ACTED IN CONCERT" TO WILLFULLY COMMIT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT OF COURT

Plaintiff incorporated by reference ¶ 1 through 76 as if fully set forth herein.

77. Defendant City of Chicago Police "acted in concert" with Defendants Michael Blanchard, Mark Blanchard, Deeatra Blanchard, Steven Robinson, Mario Cusumano, Nannette Foster, Kushala Vora, Wayne Thomas to willfully commit Criminal Contempt of Court by willfully violating the Court order dated July 6, 2021 which caused more damages and encouraged the numerous subsequent crimes committed by these Defendants who continue to willfully violate the Court order to date and counting.

COUNT XIV

DEFENDANT CHICAGO POLICE "ACTED IN CONCERT" TO RETALIATE AGAINST THE PLAINTIFF WHO IS A WHISTLEBLOWER, WITNESS AND VICTIM

Plaintiff incorporated by reference ¶ 1 through 77 as if fully set forth herein.

78. The Defendants City of Chicago Police "acted in concert" to willfully endanger the life of the Plaintiff by Defendant City of Chicago Police willfully and maliciously creating fraudulent, dangerous interactions that traumatized and endangered the Plaintiff's life.

Plaintiff incorporated by reference ¶ 1 through 78 as if fully set forth herein.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, Grace Stovall, prays for judgment against the Defendant City of Chicago and their accomplices for reasonable compensatory damages and punitive damages, and return of her "apartment full" of her possessions and evidentiary evidence, plus attorney's fees and costs and any other relief this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

Jury Demand

Plaintiff requests a trial by jury

Respectfully submitted,

By Grace L. Stovall, Plaintiff, Pro se

Date: March 20, 2023

Plaintiff filed 10 pages of Exhibits with this complaint including exhibits 8, 9 and 10 that shows illicit messages from Defendant Lori Lightfoot who "acted in concert" to illegally close 311 building complaints reported for dangerous and explosive conditions of smoking electrical wires in the walls due to Blanchard's illegal "meter jumpering" to steal electricity for their building at 5114/5112 S. Ingleside, Chicago, Illinois

Michael Blanchard was sued by Peoples Gas for stealing gas resulting in Blanchard being banned from gas service in Circuit Court cases Peoples Gas vs Michael Blanchard Circuit Court Cases 99MI161540 and 95MI001747 and the City of Chicago sued (Slumlord) Michael Blanchard in Circuit Court Case 1987400301.
